

VICTIM SERVICES ASSISTANT - GRANT-FUNDED

JOB DESCRIPTION

Classification Responsibilities: A Victim Services Assistant (VSA) performs highly interactive duties working directly with victims by assisting them to better understand the criminal justice system and by providing service referrals as appropriate. The VSA's duties include: being a liaison between victims, Prosecution, and Court staff; accompanying victims to court proceedings and informing them about their constitutional and statutory mandated victims' rights; notifying victims about restitution eligibility and other economic recovery options available; processing restitution requests and victim impact statements; assisting victims with securing Orders of Protection and Injunctions Against Harassment; assessing the needs of victims and acting as a resource for community service referrals; and engaging in follow-up contact, as needed, with domestic violence victims after case disposition. The VSA's duties involve data entry and attention to detail including: thorough case documentation, using both paper-based and computer automated case management systems; maintaining statistical records on victims served and services provided; and working with the prosecuting attorneys and staff to improve services to victims. The VSA recommends policy and procedure revisions as deemed necessary to improve the work environment and assists in the training of volunteer staff in Victim Services. The VSA provides training on victim rights and crime victim related issues, facilitates victim related community outreach activities, and performs other duties as assigned.
