

HOUSING SPECIALIST TRAINEE - GRANT-FUNDED

JOB DESCRIPTION

Classification Responsibilities: A Housing Specialist Trainee performs a variety of office activities while learning Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 8 low-income housing regulations and procedures, and receives on-the-job training to learn to implement the regulations for the Housing Choice Voucher Program or other related housing programs (Family Self-Sufficiency, Homeownership Program). Responsibilities include: learning requirements in order to determine eligibility and qualify applicants; learning the requirements and procedures to complete interim and annual recertification of participants; and learning to negotiate rents and prepare contracts between participants, landlords, and Housing Services; and learning the basic requirements of the housing quality standards. Other housing program responsibilities include: learning to recruit participants; learning to conduct new participant, portability move-in, and mover orientation; learning policies and procedures; learning to provide participant support by developing goals and participant program objectives; learning HUD guidelines, rules, and regulations for special programs; and learning to create month-end reports, monthly escrow reports, annual statements, and other relative reports. This class performs related duties as required.

Distinguishing Features: Progression from a Housing Specialist Trainee to Housing Specialist is accomplished through a noncompetitive criteria-based promotional process. The employee must be employed a minimum of one year as a Housing Specialist Trainee and demonstrate the level of competency necessary to independently perform the duties of a Housing Specialist. While in training, supervision is received from a Housing Supervisor, who will provide guidance and on-the-job training to assist the trainee in learning the Section 8 requirements, regulations, and procedures necessary to perform the work of a Housing Specialist. This class is FLSA nonexempt.
