

ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY I

JOB DESCRIPTION

Classification Responsibilities: An Assistant City Attorney I performs professional civil municipal legal work involving a wide-variety of legal issues, cases, and projects. Attorneys in this classification will work independently on legal matters and will work with more experienced attorneys on more complex legal matters. Attorneys in this classification may be assigned to work in either or both of the Civil Litigation Defense and the Administrative Municipal Law areas of assignment. This class performs related duties as required.

Civil Litigation Defense Assignment: Attorneys assigned to civil litigation defense must have the ability to handle all aspects of a civil defense litigation practice which include discovery, depositions, motion practice, and trials; an understanding of federal and state law defenses for federal and state claims; knowledge about federal and state rules of civil procedures; the ability to conduct jury trials in federal and state court (initially with the assistance of an experienced attorney with progression to handling trials independently); and excellent writing and legal research skills.

Administrative Municipal Law Assignment: Attorneys assigned to administrative municipal law must have knowledge about general municipal law bearing on City legal problems, including public records and open meeting laws; the ability to draft ordinances, resolutions, and agreements (initially with the assistance of an experienced attorney with progression to handling these duties independently); and the ability to provide City departments with legal advice.

Distinguishing Features: This classification has been designated as a non-classified, non-merit system, at-will position. An Assistant City Attorney I receives general supervision from a Deputy City Attorney who reviews work through conferences and meetings and by an evaluation of overall results achieved. Work requires considerable exercise of initiative and independent judgment with established guidelines. Employees in this class may progress by noncompetitive promotion to Assistant City Attorney II upon meeting the specific criteria-based promotion requirements of experience and performance. This class is FLSA exempt-professional.
