1. Items from citizens present (maximum of three speakers for three minutes per speaker).

Bill Brando, 61 South Macdonald, requested that the members of the Council review the City's current policy regarding citizen input at Council meetings and allow citizens to present their views as part of the Regular Council Meeting on the televised cable station. Mr. Brando stated the opinion that the City's policy violates freedom of speech rights and asked the Council to initiate revisions to the current policy.

Mayor Brown commented that citizens are provided an opportunity present their remarks at televised Council Study Session and that citizens may also address separate items that are listed on the agenda.

2. Adjournment.

Without objection, the Study Session following the Regular Council Meeting adjourned at 7:08 p.m.
