1-a. Hear a presentation, discuss, and provide direction on a new mural project planned at Mesa Arts Center.

Deputy Director of Mesa Arts Center Mandy Tripoli introduced Mesa Arts Center Chief Curator Tiffany Fairall and displayed a PowerPoint presentation. (See Attachment 1)

Ms. Tripoli stated that the mission of the Mesa Arts Center (MAC) is to inspire people through engaging arts experiences that are diverse, accessible, and relevant. She shared a photo of the only mural that the MAC has on its campus, titled Desert Rose, created by Miles McGregor. (See Page 1 of Attachment 1)

Ms. Tripoli listed the goals of the Mesa Arts Center, one being to create a welcoming entryway to Mesa Art Center's Campus from Center Street. She announced the artist proposed for the new mural is Shepard Fairey who is civic-minded and internationally recognized. She elaborated that the mural will be in collaboration with an exhibition called Facing the Giant: 3 Decades of Dissent, which will take place in fall of 2023. (See Pages 3 and 4 of Attachment 1)

Ms. Tripoli reviewed the process and timeline for the mural stating that the final installation will occur in October 2023. She shared examples of Mr. Shepard's artwork and where each is located. She recognized his work with a clothing line that he started called Obey, and other murals representing various public figures and peace. (See Pages 5 through 9 of Attachment 1)

Ms. Tripoli said that the proposed mural site will be located on the two west walls of the MAC with concepts that would complement each other. She added the mural would be coated with a UV protection to help with the preservation. She explained the process for the mural installation, which is planned for October 16 to coincide with the Day of the Dead celebration. She reported the budget for the project and noted that the funding will be coming from the Museum's reserve funds which are obtained from fundraising that has occurred over the years. (See Pages 10 and 11 of Attachment 1)

In response to a question from Mayor Giles, Ms. Tripoli stated that the Museum's reserve fund is held as the Museum Foundation's fund.

In response to a question from Councilmember Duff, Ms. Tripoli confirmed that the mural will be located on both angled walls and will be companion pieces that will work together.

In response to a question from Councilmember Freeman, Ms. Tripoli explained that incorporating Mesa's rich culture and heritage into the artwork was discussed at the Mesa Art Board meetings. She said Mr. Fairey was given a concept document which includes the history of Mesa; however, his main goal is to reflect what is inside of the MAC.

City Manager Christopher Brady added that the City Council will take part in making the final decision on the mural, noting that the theme should focus on civic pride and the Climate Action Plan and not a political message.

Councilmember Duff expressed concerns with citizens crossing the street mid-block and suggested it might become more prevalent when the mural is up. She suggested putting in an additional crosswalk to avoid any possible accidents.

Mayor Giles thanked staff for the presentation.
